GENERAL INTEGRATION COURSE (BAMF COURSE)

The integration course is an important step towards a life in Germany. In the first part of the course, you will learn the language and be able to deal with everyday life independently. The orientation course in the second part informs you about life in Germany. You will learn how to orientate yourself in everyday life and participate in social life.

CONTENTS

A free placement test takes place before the course starts.

The language course (600 units) covers important topics from everyday life, for example

- Work and career/training and further education
- Childcare and education
- Shopping/trade/consumption
- Leisure and social contacts
- Health and hygiene/human body
- Media and media use
- Living
- The language course concludes with the "German Test for Immigrants" (DTZ) exam.

Following the language course, you will attend the orientation course (100 lessons).

Here you will learn all about

- the German legal system, history and culture
- Rights and duties in Germany
- Forms of coexistence in society
- Values that are important in Germany, for example freedom of religion, tolerance and equal rights for men and women
- Final test for the orientation course (LiD)
